Upon their arrival students will have to attend an orientation session to get all the practical details about the university. The university will normally use e-mail to communicate with students during term-time. It's the responsibility of the student to check the e-mail on a daily basis.

Fondazione Milano Scuole Civiche is a Foundation established in 2000 and it was tasked with the management of four higher education schools:

Civica Scuola di Musica Claudio Abbado (music),

Civica Scuola di Teatro Paolo Grassi (drama and dance),

Civica Scuola di Cinema Luchino Visconti (film and television)

Civica Scuola Interpreti e Traduttori Altiero Spinelli (interpreting and translating)

Civica Scuola di Musica Claudio Abbado

The school was founded in 1862; to host part of the school, since 1973, is the historic Villa Simonetta. Villa Simonetta is a patrician renaissance villa located in Milan. The splendid Villa bears the name of the noble Milanese family Simonetta that succeeded Don Ferdinando Gonzaga, Governor of the Duchy of Milan, and is one of the most evident examples of a sixteenth century villas built outside the city walls. Built at the end of the fifteenth century under the name of "La Gualtiera", became the pleasure villa of Ferrante Gonzaga and its court.

In time it has repeatedly enlarged and renovated.

The school has been named after Claudio Abbado in 2014.

Civica Scuola di Musica Claudio Abbado offers a wide range of professional, technical, introductory and amateur courses for all ages. All students take part in a vast selection of public ensemble and orchestra events. The School has been authorised by the Italian Ministry of Education, to issue university - first cycle Bachelor qualification. We are waiting for the recognition of the second cycle / master qualification.

Civica Scuola di Musica Claudio Abbado has 5 departments:

LIFE IN MILAN

The Study in Milan website aims to reach all international students, offering them opportunities, ready access to services, and to make living and studying in Milan easier.

Erasmus students, once enrolled, can download the M-Id card, a special identity card, which allows to take advantage of many opportunities in Milan.

In order to download the M-Id card, once enrolled, you will receive a code.

For info on the M-Id card, and for info related to your life in Milan,

please visit <http://www.studyinmilan.net/>

Health assistance

All incoming European students should have the European Health Insurance Card (EHIC), which entitles the holder to get necessary treatments at the same cost as an insured person living in the country you are visiting. The card is valid only for state-provided services, as private health is not covered.

When accidents occur during the didactic activities in the school locations, students in international mobility are covered by injury and civil liability insurance.

We strongly recommend that students ensure they have medical insurance before their arrival and we also highly recommend to provide a liability insurance to cover any accidental damage caused to other people or properties.

Codice fiscale (tax registration number)

The codice fiscale is a code issued free of charge by the Agenzia delle Entrate (Revenue Agency), to identify Italian and foreign residents

You need to have your own codice fiscale to:

- open a bank account
- sign any type of contract (rental, phone line ...)

Ask your university for more details
